Thanks Whitney for the quick turn-around, and again, great feedback!

On your point regarding potential comments from leadership between Dec 9 and 13, I've added a statement about requesting any suggested changes or comments by 2:00 on Dec 11.

I clarified that the FRN is the R4 FRN.

I also made some adjustments to the schedule for the draft PA, based on verbal feedback from Jeaneanne.

I plan to forward this to Jeaneanne this evening with the caveat that not everyone on the Team has had a chance to review.

Tom

Hey Tom,

Just a couple notes:

We're providing leadership with a draft concurrence package on Dec. 9, so are we expecting that between Dec. 9 and Dec. 14 we'll be getting ad hoc comments from leadership on the package, or do we have a deadline for them? In particular, they will not have seen the Comment Response Batch 2 (the bigger portion of the RTC) so it may take a little time to address any of their comments. We may want to provide a deadline if we're beginning routing on 12/14.

For the FRN, maybe just specify this is the "R4 FRN" since there is also the HQ FrN that may be on a separate track?

Best,
Whitney

Subject: draft schedule for routing FL assumption documents for leadership

 draft / deliberative / attorney-client privilege *****

Please see the draft schedule that proposes the schedule for routing documents for senior leadership review and signature. Please note that this includes information that has already been shared with leadership regarding the Decision Document and Responsiveness Summaries. I've added the Federal Register Notice (for R4 signature), the MSA memo, and the draft Programmatic Agreement. I recognize that the next steps with the draft PA are somewhat uncertain, but I'd appreciate any input you have on any of this as quickly as possible. Thanks, Tom
